Integrating Catfish into Thunar

Catfish is a nice, lightweight file search GTK application, which can be integrated into Thunar using a custom action. In Thunar, go to the edit menu and click on Configure custom actions, click the + button and set things up like so:

The second tab needs to be set up too:

Now in Thunar you can right-click on a folder and use search in it.